

Morris/Salsman Recommendation for the Revision of 31 TAC 675.20 Definition of “Small Quantity Generator”

December 5, 2025

20) A “small quantity generator” is a generator of low-level radioactive waste that generates no more than ~~200~~ 75 cubic feet or no more than 100 curies of such waste per year, and does not include nuclear fuel cycle facilities, nuclear power generation facilities, ~~electric utilities~~, or the United States Department of Defense.